Objectives of this meeting

- Continue to promote the nationwide movement for a SMARTPHONE-FREE CHILDHOOD
- Share evidence from research around the impact of smartphones on children
- Share concerns that parents have around the use of smartphones
- Share alternatives for smartphones
- Provide details of how parents can work together to support the movement collaboratively - Parent Ambassadors
- Share the progress that has been made over the past 6 months

Smartphone-Free Childhood is a parent-led movement on a mission to protect millions of children from the dangers of using smartphones too young.

The goals for this campaign :

- A nationwide ban on smartphones in schools* with phone lockers and pouches so they are not accessible during the day.
- Ban of social media for children under 16 years old.
- Ban of smartphones for children under 14 years old.*

Parent Blueprint for Smartphone Free Childhood

Our Goals

1. Ban use of smartphones in all St Albans schools in line with government guidance, seeking commitment to policy b on page 7 (“Mobile phone handed in on arrival”)

2. Withhold smartphones from children under 14 across St Albans

3. To ensure that all schools to have a clear policy that lessons must not require students to have use of a smartphone, and must ensure that a smartphone is not required to participate in school life

Milestones/Targets

1. (School) Demonstrate >50% support from school's parents, via Second Survey

2. (School) Create a Parent Pact, signed by >50% of school's parents

3. (St Albans) Write a letter to secondary schools from primary parents, signed by >50% of primary parents

○ Include a table of all primaries and data on volume of support

4. (St Albans) Write a letter to local MP from primary and secondary school parents, signed by >50% of parents

○ Include a table of all schools and data on volume of support

5. (St Albans) Create a city-wide Parent Pact

Alternatives to Smartphones

Internet Free Phones

When you do want to get a phone for your child make sure:

- The phone does not support WI-FI
- No 4G/5G
- No selfie camera
- Use a SIM card with NO DATA, calls and texts only
- Give it with a contract/boundaries (see below)

Sim Cards:
IMPORTANT – When you get a SIM card for your child's phone, make sure that it has NO DATA roaming, only calls and texts so that there is no chance that they can access the internet. Currently Asda are the only company that are offering this.

How your choices
affect your kids

Why parental controls are a big tech cop out

58%
of teens say they've never had controls put on their phone by parents

47%
of teens with controls in place say they have bypassed them

(Parentkind poll, May 2024)

If your child has a smartphone, we'd recommend using parental controls – but ultimately they're not the solution to this problem

Many parents don't have the tech-knowledge or headspace to set them up (or to hold fast in the face of a teen lobbying for more)

And teens find multiple ways to bypass controls:

- Performing a factory reset
- Using VPN software
- Hacking the WiFi router
- Memorising your passcode

Even if your kid's phone has controls, their friends may not – so they may see or be sent inappropriate content anyway

Yet big tech lobby government not to regulate them further by arguing that their parental controls are sufficient – that 'parents just need to educate themselves'

Parental controls have been around since the dawn of the iPhone – and we are where we are. Teens across the globe are experiencing an explosion in mental illness.

If we all agree to delay giving our children smartphones, and instead gave them brick phones until at least the end of Year 9, the peer pressure instantly reduces.
Saying no can feel impossible when you're acting alone. Acting collectively makes it infinitely easier.
